Dear Sir/Madam

Tebet, South Jakarta, 12190

Dear Mr/Mrs,

Based on the information I received from one of the job search platforms, your company is currently opening IT vacancies that focus on software and I am very interested in this job.

My educational background is a Bachelor of Information Engineering, Pamulang University. I had a lot of practical experience and exposure during my studies. I have been exposed to various skills that allow me to blend into your company.

From your vacancy, I can see that you are looking for candidates who have superior skills relevant for the digital world. I have knowledge about digital-based business, a little about UI/UX design as well as very good interpersonal and communication skills. So, I think the job description for this position is in accordance with my latest education.

Along with the application letter, I have attached the documents; Curriculum vitae, final diploma, and health certificate for your full consideration. Feel free to contact me via email at jefridanilok@gmail.com if you have any further questions. I appreciate you taking the time to review my application, and I sincerely hope to have the opportunity to move on to the next stage and make a positive contribution to your company.

That's how I actually wrote this job application letter. Thank you for your attention.

Yours faithfully,

Jefri Danil
